1. Introduction

- 1.1. This Agreement between The People's Learning Trust and the signatory trade unions establishes machinery to consult and negotiate with staff through the recognised trade unions. The People's Learning Trust recognises the joint unions as the body representing staff for the purposes of informing and consulting the workforce and for negotiation on the terms and conditions of employment for staff.
- 1.2. To enable the joint trade unions to effectively carry out their functions within this agreement, The People's Learning Trust commits to:
 - Encourage new employees to join a trade union of their choice.
 - Notify the trade unions of new employees.
 - Encourage employees to become accredited trade union representatives.
 - Value the contribution of trade union representatives.
- 1.3. In accordance with the TUPE Regulations, trade union recognition rights for recognised trade unions are automatically transferred over when a maintained school becomes an Academy. This move to academy status means that there is a need to clarify the specific working arrangements between the Unions and The People's Learning Trust, particularly in respect of consultation, negotiation, and facilities for union representatives.
- 1.4. The terms of this Agreement provide that clarification and supersede all formal trade union recognition agreements and informal practices which transferred under TUPE.
- 1.5. All unions represented on the JCNC will undertake to consult and inform union officials, as appropriate, in all local authorities where current formal trade union recognition agreements exist, as to any revised arrangements.
- 1.6. The parties undertake to negotiate constructively with a view to reaching joint agreements which are acceptable to their respective constituents wherever possible, and all meetings will intend to reach an agreement on the issue(s) under consideration.
- 1.7. The signatories to this Agreement share, as their guiding principle, the need to ensure an environment which promotes education of the highest quality. This Agreement is intended to promote and assist in the establishment of:
 - Harmonious working relationships;

- Jointly agreed pay and conditions of employment;
 - Good industrial relations and the fair treatment of staff;
 - Commitment to equality of opportunity;
 - Commitment to quality education;
 - Avoidance or resolution of disputes wherever possible;
 - The ability for academies to be managed in an effective and non-bureaucratic manner;
 - The effective use of funding;
 - The fair and proper application of TUPE and all other employment law;
 - Effective health and safety practices;
 - Effective communication to all staff;
 - The participation and involvement of all staff.
- 1.8. The People's Learning Trust recognises the trade unions' right to represent, protect and advance the interests of their members employed in each The People's Learning Trust establishment or directly by the Trust.
- 1.9. The trade unions recognise that it is the responsibility of The People's Learning Trust and its academies to plan, organise and manage the delivery of high-quality education to all its pupils.

2. Recognition

2.1 The following unions are recognised by The People's Learning Trust for the purpose set out in the paragraph above:

2.2

(i) For teachers:

- Association of School and College Leaders (ASCL)
- National Association of Headteachers (NAHT)
- NASUWT – The Teachers' Union
- National Education Union (NEU)

(ii) For support staff:

- Unison
- GMB
- Unite

2.3 Other unions may be recognised in due course, where appropriate.

3. Structure for Consultation, Negotiation & Representation

3.1 Within the People's Learning Trust, consultation and negotiation will take place at three levels.

3.2 Trust-wide level

3.2.1 At the People's Learning Trust level, consultation and negotiation on terms and conditions issues will take place through the Joint Consultation and Negotiation Committee (JCNC). Such meetings will take place once per term.

Subgroups may meet as appropriate to discuss details of proposed changes to terms and conditions which only affect teachers or support staff. Such Sub-Groups will only be formed by joint agreement and will report back to the full JCNC.

3.3 Academy Level

3.3.1 Within each Academy, a termly meeting will be scheduled with in-house trade union representatives for the purpose of ensuring good ongoing relations through the discussion of relevant issues within the Academy.

3.3.2 Each Academy will be bound by the terms and conditions and any other joint agreements reached at the trust-wide level via the JCNC.

3.4 Individual level (representation)

3.4.1 The Trust will continue to work constructively with union representatives and/or officials where issues are specifically about an individual within an academy. Whether that official is employed by the union or locally elected is a matter for the trade union.

4 Consultation & Negotiation at JCNC Level

4.1 The recognised unions and The People's Learning Trust will negotiate at the JCNC on a pay and conditions framework and on any other issues that the parties mutually agree from time to time should be the subject of negotiations.

The People's Learning Trust recognises that a national framework of terms and conditions in education is essential for the smooth operation of the labour market for education professionals.

It will employ Teachers on School Teachers' Pay and Conditions alongside the "Burgundy Book" terms of service and support staff on NJC-derived "Green Book" terms and conditions, and commits to do so as long as those represent the best available, and The People's Learning Trust employees desire to retain them.

Noting the principle of no detriment, The People's Learning Trust will not move away from these arrangements without consultation and agreement.

- 4.2 The parties undertake to negotiate constructively with a view to reaching joint agreements which are acceptable to their respective organisations wherever possible.
- 4.3 The following matters shall be the subject of consultation and/or negotiation between the recognised unions and The People's Learning Trust:
- Pay, including pay structure;
 - Hours and holidays;
 - Negotiating machinery and procedures;
 - Changes to existing, or creating new, collective agreements;
 - Employment policies and procedures, including disciplinary, capability and grievance procedures;
 - Health and safety;
 - Staff training and development;
 - Equality issues;
 - Operational issues affecting the deployment, security and prospects of staff;
 - Any other item which both sides agree to refer.

5 Operation of the Agreement

- 5.1 The operation of this Agreement will be reviewed every two years by both sides so that consideration can be given to the need for any change in the light of experience.
- 5.2 Either The People's Learning Trust or any of the signatory unions may give twelve months' notice of their intention to withdraw from the Agreement. In this circumstance, either side will be entitled to place the matter for discussion upon the agenda of a meeting of the JNC and subsequently to refer the matter to Acas for conciliation in order to seek resolution of the issue. Both parties may subsequently agree, where necessary, that the matter is referred to Acas for arbitration. During these procedures, the status quo ante will be honoured.

6 Title

- 6.1 The body shall be known as the Joint Consultative and Negotiation Committee (JCNC) for Staff in The People's Learning Trust.

7 Scope

- 7.1 The functions of the JCNC are specified under the 'Structure for Consultation and Negotiation' section of this Agreement and shall relate to all those working under contract, whether of employment or service, for The People's Learning Trust.

8 Membership

- 8.1 The People's Learning Trust representatives shall normally be:
- Chief Executive Officer;
 - Chief Finance & Operating Officer;
 - Director of People;
 - Any Director-level postholder (Central Team) with an interest in an agenda item;
 - Alternatives may be deputed from time to time.
- 8.2 The Trust may also invite a board member where it is considered helpful to the agenda items.
- 8.3 The composition of the Union side is the prerogative of the recognised trade unions, but there will be an expectation that one representative from each trade union will attend each meeting of the JCC.

It is accepted that some Unions may send two representatives to some meetings (e.g., to facilitate training and/or handover). The following trade unions shall represent staff, and each is entitled to representation on the JCNC:

8.3.1 For teachers:

- Association of School and College Leaders (ASCL)
- National Association of Headteachers (NAHT)

- National Association of Schoolmasters Union of Women Teachers (NASUWT)
- National Education Union (NEU)

8.3.2 For support staff:

- GMB
- Unison
- Unite

- 8.4 If any organisation referred to in the paragraph above fails to appoint representatives, this shall not invalidate the decisions of the JCNC. In the event of any organisation's representative being unable to attend any meeting of the JCNC or its committees, that organisation shall be entitled to appoint another representative to attend in his or her place.

Additional Representatives may attend as observers with speaking rights but not voting rights, providing reasonable notice is given.

9 Functions

- 9.1 The JCNC and its committees will, as set out in the 'Consultation and Negotiation at JCNC Level' section of this Agreement, negotiate on the pay and conditions framework and on any other issues that the parties mutually agree from time to time should be the subject of group-level negotiations.
- 9.2 The parties undertake to negotiate constructively with a view to reaching joint agreements which are acceptable to their respective organisations wherever possible. Agreements within the JCNC shall be communicated to The People's Learning Trust Board for ratification. The parties are committed to seeking to uphold and implement such agreements once ratified.

10 Information

- 10.1 The People's Learning Trust undertakes to supply the recognised unions with the necessary information for them to carry out effective consultation and negotiations. This shall include the organisation's employment policies and procedures, and proposed amendments and additions.

11 Consultation

- 11.1 The People's Learning Trust undertakes to have proper consultation with staff through their trade unions to enable feedback and discussion before significant decisions are taken concerning matters directly affecting the interests of the staff. The People's Learning Trust will additionally consult on the current situation, structure and probable development of employment in the organisation, especially any threat to employment and on any changes in work organisation or contractual relations in sufficient time to allow full and meaningful consultation to take place before such changes are implemented.

12 Procedure

12.1 Committees and Sub-Committees

The JCNC will operate through one committee. Sub-Groups may meet as appropriate to discuss details of proposed changes to terms and conditions which only affect either teachers or support staff. Such Sub-Groups will only be formed by joint agreement and will report back to the Group JCNC.

12.2 Co-opted Members

The JCNC may co-opt or allow any Sub-Group to co-opt such persons with special knowledge, not being members of the JCNC, as may serve the particular interest of the JCNC or its committees, provided that person so co-opted serves only in a consultative and non-voting capacity.

12.3 Chair

The JCNC will be chaired by a representative of The People's Learning Trust. Wherever possible, it will be the Chief Executive or his/her nominee who chairs the meetings.

12.4 Officers

The People's Learning Trust and the collective trade unions will each appoint a Secretary to work together on business relating to the JCNC and for any Subgroups of the JCNC.

13 Meetings

- 13.1 Ordinary meetings of the JCNC will take place as often as may be necessary as agreed in discussion between the parties, but at least once per term.
- 13.2 Special meetings may be called by the Chair, either on behalf of The People's Learning Trust or in response to a formal request from JCNC members representing at least two unions on the staff side. The request for a special meeting and the notice summoning the meeting shall state the nature of the business proposed to be transacted thereat, and no other matters shall be discussed. Such special meetings shall only be called in exceptional circumstances where the nature of the business fully justifies such a meeting. The meeting shall take place within 15 working days (Mon-Fri, excluding school holidays) of the requisition by the Chair.
- 13.3 The date of the meeting and the agenda will be agreed jointly following consultation with all constituents in advance by the Joint Secretaries.
- 13.4 Meetings shall be judged quorate if at least three trade unions are represented and if there are representatives of at least one Support Staff union and one Teaching union present.

13.5 Notice of Meetings

Agenda items will be agreed by the Joint Secretaries at least 15 working days before the meeting. All notices of meetings of the JCNC and any committees thereof shall normally be sent to the respective members at least 10 working days before the date of the meeting. Such notices will contain the agenda and any supporting papers, and the time for the start of the meeting and its anticipated duration.

13.6 Funding

The costs associated with hosting the meetings will be met by The People's Learning Trust, including the travelling and other incidental expenses incurred by JCNC members employed by The People's Learning Trust, which will be reimbursed.

13.7 Reports and Minutes

The People's Learning Trust will provide for meetings to be minuted and for draft minutes to be prepared. The Joint Secretaries will circulate a copy of the draft minutes of the proceedings for all meetings within 10 working days after the meeting. Such minutes shall be subject to approval by the JCNC at its next meeting.

14 Failure to Agree

- 14.1 If The People's Learning Trust and the trade unions cannot reach an agreement, the matter may be referred to the Advisory, Conciliation and Arbitration Service (Acas) to seek a resolution of the issue. Both parties will seek to agree whether the referral shall be for conciliation or arbitration, and the Joint Secretaries shall be tasked with seeking agreement on the terms of the referral.
- 14.2 Whilst these procedures are being followed, the Academy will honour the status quo ante.

15 Amendments to the Constitution

- 15.1 The Constitution shall be amended only with the agreement of both sides of the JCNC.

16 Facilities for TU Representatives & Members

- 16.1 The People's Learning Trust agrees to provide appropriate facilities to trade union representatives and members to enable them to discharge trade union duties and undertake trade union activity respectively, and to facilitate the objectives of effective communication and consultation with employees and their representatives set out earlier in this Agreement.
- 16.2 Each Academy will buy into facilities through its local authority where available, subject to review contemporaneously with any review of this agreement.
- 16.3 The Trust can make arrangements for the deduction and transfer of union subscriptions through payroll, if required.

17 Trade Union Representatives

- 17.1 For this Agreement, the term 'trade union representatives' includes workplace representatives, health and safety representatives and learning representatives, as well as any other elected/appointed representative roles within the recognised trade unions.
- 17.2 Trade union representatives will be appointed in accordance with the rules of the individual trade unions concerned. The trade unions will inform The People's Learning Trust in writing of the names of their appointed representatives.
- 17.3 The number of trade union representatives appointed shall be a matter for each union, but the trade unions agree that the numbers shall be reasonable in relation to the number of members represented.
- 17.4 It is for each trade union to determine whether their representatives at the JCNC are employed officials or any other elected/appointed roles within the trade unions.
- 17.5 The People's Learning Trust expressly values the contribution made by trade union representatives and their skills and experience, and specifically undertakes that no trade union representatives will suffer detriment of any nature as a result of undertaking this vital role on behalf of trade union members.

18 Time off with Pay for TU Representatives

- 18.1 The People's Learning Trust recognises the statutory right of trade union representatives to reasonable time off with pay for the purpose of carrying out trade union duties.

The People's Learning Trust will not unreasonably withhold appropriate time off with pay, in particular time off for representatives to attend meetings convened by The People's Learning Trust; reasonable time off for representatives to prepare for and/or attend meetings or to consult with employed officials of their union; and reasonable time off for trade union representatives to attend annual conferences and other policy-making conferences/fora of their trade unions as a delegate.

- 18.2 Such time off with pay will normally be during normal academy operating hours; in the case of support staff union representatives, through time off during their contractual working hours, and in the case of teacher union representatives, through release from timetabled teaching time. Trade union representatives will give as much notice as possible of the need for such time off.

- 18.3 The People's Learning Trust will seek to ensure that all meetings convened by them or the individual Academy and involving trade union representatives take place within normal academy operating hours.
- 18.4 Where possible, The People's Learning Trust will endeavour to accommodate individual requirements but never at the expense of provision of service to pupils and the wider community.
- 18.5 The People's Learning Trust and the trade unions are committed to ensuring that trade union representatives receive appropriate training to allow them to discharge their trade union duties. The trade unions will provide appropriate training to their representatives.

The People's Learning Trust will permit trade union representatives a reasonable time off with pay to attend relevant training courses run by their trade unions or by other appropriate bodies on receiving appropriate notification, notice and information relating to the courses provided.

- 18.6 It is agreed that any request for time off will be balanced against the effective running of the Academy and be judged against the impact that it will have on the efficient running of the organisation, especially with reference to the impact on learning and progress.

19 Other Facilities for TU Representatives

- 19.1 The People's Learning Trust will provide the following facilities to trade union representatives:
- Reasonable accommodation to hold meetings and to interview members confidentially.
 - Reasonable accommodation to hold pre-meetings before the JCNC meetings for up to one hour.
 - A physical and, where possible, virtual notice board in each academy.
 - Reasonable access to and reasonable free use of office space, confidential telephone, ICT facilities and photocopying facilities where available.

20 Trade Union Meetings

- 20.1 The People's Learning Trust will allow trade union members to hold meetings on the premises outside their normal working hours, including at lunch times and immediately following the end of the timetabled day. For support staff, permission for meetings during contracted hours will not unreasonably be withheld, taking account of the operational requirements of the Academy.

The trade unions will give reasonable notice of all meetings to the Trust. The People's Learning Trust will not unreasonably seek to place restrictions on the frequency or duration of such meetings or on the attendance of employed officials or any other elected/appointed representatives of the trade union at such meetings, subject to being informed in advance.

- 20.2 If a meeting is called at a location other than the normal workplace of a trade union representative employed by The People's Learning Trust, that trade union representative will be entitled to claim travel costs in line with the Trust's agreed expense policy.

21 Disciplinary Action involving TU Representatives

- 21.1 The People's Learning Trust will not take disciplinary action against a trade union representative until an employed official of that trade union has been informed.
